Stockholm Recommendations on DNS Abuse

topDNS, the industry initiative by eco – Association of the Internet Industry to fight DNS abuse, has worked on a set of recommendations to be followed by all types of Internet infrastructure providers – be they hosting companies, email service providers, domain name registries or registrars – in order to allow for efficient and swift action against DNS abuse.

The recommendations are intentionally cc some have even called them "the 10 com of combatting DNS Abuse". They are as fol

1. Publish an anti-abuse policy covering DNS abus details for abuse reports.¹
